Deacon's Diary

by Deacon Pat Knier

In June 1859, Jean-François Gravelet (known as The Great Blondin) crossed Niagara Falls walking a tight rope. During his life, he repeated the feat several times, always with a different theatrical variation: blindfolded, in a sack, trundling a wheelbarrow, on stilts, carrying his manager, Harry Colcord on his back.

Not surprisingly, Blondin's crossings drew crowds. About to cross pushing a wheelbarrow with a sack of cement, he asked a reporter standing with crowd. "Do you believe I can do this?" "Yes sir, after watching you, I believe you can do anything." "Do you believe that instead of a sack of cement, I could put a man in this wheelbarrow, and wheel him safely to the other side?" "Oh, yes, Mr. Blondin, I certainly believe it." "Good," said Blondin, "Get in."

In our gospel for this weekend, we hear the last segment of the "Bread of Life" discourse from John's Gospel. From here, we will go back to Mark's Gospel for the rest of the Liturgical Year. In this reading we hear of people walking away saying: "This is too hard [to listen to]; who can accept it?" In other words, they wouldn't get in. They weren't willing to take that leap of faith. Many of them saw numerous miracles that He had performed even to feeding at least five-thousand with five loaves of bread and a couple of fish.

But sometimes, we too are afraid to 'get in' when there's a bit of a struggle involved; when we aren't quite sure of our selves, and we avoid any conflict. We may hear someone bashing our Catholic Church especially now in the wake of the recent Grand Jury statement on the abuses and the cover-up of the Church in the Dioceses of Pennsylvania. That report with its evidence of cover-up is terrible and it never should have happened.

When we hear the subject breeched about the terrible things that have happened there and in many other places, it's okay to express our anger and disgust along with anyone else. However, we need to remind ourselves and others not to think or talk in terms of generalization which may cast a shadow not only over the entire Catholic Church, but that shadow is being cast over good, dedicated, and self-sacrificing priests as well.

Now, more than ever, we all need to pray daily for our priests. We need to be more courageous and grounded in our Catholic Faith to keep the issues in truth and not extended beyond that. We need to tell our good and dedicated Shepherds that we are praying for them. We need to "get in."

And, if you hear that someone says: "This latest scandal is too hard; who can accept it?" Remember this; The Eucharist is His true flesh. The Eucharist is His true blood. To whom shall we go? He gives us the gift of eternal life. That gift as well as so many others, comes to us through the Bride of Christ, (the Catholic Church) and her priests. Let's be willing to "get in."

Readings for the Week

|------------------|---|
| Monday | 2 Thes 1:1-5, 11-12/Mt 23:13-22 |
| Tuesday | 2 Thes 2:1-3a, 14-17/Mt 23:23-26 |
| Wednesday | 2 Thes 3:6-10, 16-18/Mk 6:17-29 |
| Thursday | 1 Cor 1:1-9/Mt 24:42-51 |
| Friday | 1 Cor 1:17-25/Mt 25:1-13 |
| Saturday | 1 Cor 1:26-31/Mt 25:14-30 |
| Sunday | Dt 4:1-2, 6-8/Jas 1:17-18, 31b-22, 27 Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23 |

Join us next week as our readings' focus is: "Jesus, who is the fulfillment of God's laws and prophets, tells us how to live out God's commandments." Next week's readings, we will think about the best way to live out God's commandments, passed on to us through Moses, by witnessing God's blessings and presence in our midst. We can go beyond our human traditions and rituals by washing our hearts and getting rid of evil thoughts and desires. We practice it by caring for all who are vulnerable and in need.

Blessing of College Students

As your young adults begin to go off to college, make sure to leave them with both your blessing and the blessing of God. Use the following as an example...

Loving God, we thank you for bringing us to this moment. As they enter into this new phase of life, help them to be strong enough to know when they are weak, and brave enough to face them self when afraid. Give them the ability to appreciate joy and the strength to weather life's challenges. Teach them compassion for those in need. Grant them the insight to know them self and the wisdom to know You. Help them to feel Your Presence as they begin this new journey through life.

Email Bible Study

Are you interested in being part of a weekly bible study – but don't have the time to meet? Check this out...

This fall, we will have a six-week study on the first half (chapters 1-14) of the Acts of the Apostles. The second half will take place in the spring. Every week, beginning the week of September 24, Joe Zenk will send out the assigned reading for that week along with a number of questions for you to pray with, meditate upon and answer on your own. You won't have to share them with anyone else if you do not wish to as they are for your own spiritual growth. Then, at the end of the six weeks (on November 8), the group is invited together to discuss their thoughts from the book we've read. Don't have time to come to the gathering? You don't have to...it's that easy.

To sign up, email Joe at pdjoezenk@gmail.com or contact any of our parish offices with your name and email.

- 42 parishioners gave $2,420 (Holy Rosary)

- 23 parishioners gave $2,395 (St. Ann)
- 81 parishioners gave $4,170 (Holy Rosary)
- 67 parishioners gave $4,800 (SS. Peter & Paul).

Let's see if we can increase our support of this very

August Birthdays

Eight of our 'senior parishioners' celebrate their birthdays during the month of August. They include George Hermann (4), Rose Werdeo (20), Lois Wolf (21), Bernice Reineck (21), Cyrilla Faust (22), Gary Vondrachek (23), Carol DeVillers (24) and Marlene Schneider (31). We hope your birthday is special and may God bless you all through the year!

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Granger Jay, son of Amanda (Kienbaum) and Andrew Shillingowski and Olivia Kay, daughter of Kristen (Pauly) and Tyler Herzog, who were dipped into the waters of baptism. May they grow to be all God created them to be – and may their hearts be ever new in Christ.

Registration & Information

Faith Formation registration form and information has been emailed to all returning families. If you are new to the parish or have a student in Kindergarten or 1st grade and would like information about our program please contact Danielle Ehlenbeck, daniellefaithformation@gmail.com, to receive the needed paperwork. All parents should attend the mandatory parent meeting on September 5th at 6:30pm. We are also looking for a few catechists; we need catechists for grades 4, 10, and 11 (second semester only). If you would like more information or to volunteer to help out please contact Danielle.

New Doors

If you would like to help contribute to the new fire doors at the south entrances to church you can make your contribution to the Building and Maintenance collection any time during month of August. The total cost for the doors was just under $13,000.

Bread & Wine

In the recent packet of stewardship envelopes you may have found a yellow envelope labeled ALTAR BREADS AND WINE. This offering, which is open to ALL members of our parish if they wish—helps support the purchase of alter bread and wines for the entire year.

Last fiscal year our cost for both bread & wine was $737 and your generous envelope contributions covered $490. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Didn't get an envelope but would still like to contribute to this? Just drop your contribution in the collection in an envelope marked Bread & Wine. Be sure to include your name.

Custodial Position Filled

We welcome back Fred Meyer to the position of custodian here at Ss. Peter & Paul! Fred will begin in mid-September. In the meantime, many thanks to Al Meiselwitz and Bill Gaedke who have served in this position for many years and who stayed on until a replacement can be found. Thanks gentlemen!

Pie Pans

The stack of pie & cake pans is slowly going down, but there are still some pans in the church basement waiting for their owners to pick them up. The church doors are open from 7—11 am during the week, or you can stop down on Saturday and Sunday to pick them up.

After 30 years, Mary Cash has decided to step down from her ministry of leading music on Sunday mornings here at St. Ann. Thank you, Mary, for helping lead us in song and prayer all these years!

We are now in need of someone (or a team of people) who would be willing to play piano, lead the choir and select music for St. Ann. Please prayerfully consider whether God is calling you at this time for this ministry. Contact Joe or Laura at the office (894-3147) if you are interested or have questions.

Project Update

Workers and volunteers have been busy working on our project. The shed has been disassembled and removed, trees were cut down and cleaned up, the septic line is buried for the future bathroom, down spouts have been buried, and the new ramp has been poured. This past week the front steps were removed and replaced, and the north and south parking lots were grated. Due to the extent of this work, Mass on Sunday, August 26th is at Ss. Peter & Paul. Please continue to check the website and answering system for updates about Mass. Thank you for your generosity to make this project a reality.
