WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 21, 2018

Deacon's Diary

by Deacon Pat Knier

If your faith journey sometimes may feel like it has hit a plateau, and seems to be stalled, you are not alone. Many great saints have felt the same way. St. Theresa of Kalcutta called it "The Dark Night of the Soul." I would tend to say: "If you've never experienced it, then it could mean that you have become complacent with where you are at, and need to do something to propel your faith journey. Whatever you do, don't try to bargain with God: "If you do this for me, I will do that for you." You may be asking for more than you bargained for.

That's what happened to James and John in this weekend's Gospel. They came to Jesus and said to Him: "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." After Jesus asked them what they wanted, they said: "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus then asked them: "Are you ready to follow the same path as I do in suffering and death?"; (paraphrased) They said yes they could, but they really didn't understand what they were saying "Yes" to.

Then again, do any of us realize the full impact of what our parents and Godparents agreed to for us when we were baptized? Do any of us fully realize that; through our baptism, being anointed as priest, prophet, and king, requires that we also must be willing to die with Christ? We may not face an immediate physical death, but it does mean that we should become less self-centered; that we should always be open to the needs of others.

We know through the writings of Scripture, that the same James and John who said "Yes we can" endure the same path to suffering and death as Jesus would endure, did also suffer martyrdom.

Now, you may say, if you know Scripture; "James died as a martyr for his faith by being beheaded, but John didn't because he died on the Island of Patmos of natural causes." This is true, but an attempt to kill him by poisoning failed and then he was exiled to die on that island. And there, tradition has it, he wrote the Book of Revelation.

A recent reflection I listened to described James' Martyrdom as "Red Martyrdom," (shedding of blood) and John's as a "White Martyrdom," (dying of natural causes for faith). Most of us will unlikely die a "Red Martyrdom" for our faith. But all of us should be willing to die a "White Martyrdom" for our faith. That should be our goal in life, because through our baptism, "we die to our worldly life so we can rise with Christ." We let go of our own needs to focus on the needs of others. This is what is required of us to lead Saintly lives.

To quote Pope Francis in his recent homily for the beatification of Saint Oscar Romero, Pope Saint Paul VI, and the others: "Let us ask ourselves where we are in our story of love with God. Do we content ourselves with a few commandments or do we follow Jesus as lovers, really prepared to leave behind something for him?" the pope asked. "Today Jesus invites us to return to the source of joy, which is the encounter with him, the courageous choice to risk everything to follow him, the satisfaction of leaving something behind in order to embrace his way. The saints have travelled this path," he continued. "Let us ask for the grace always to leave things behind for love of the Lord: to leave behind wealth, the yearning for status and power, structures that are no longer adequate for proclaiming the Gospel, those weights that slow down our mission, the strings that tie us to the world."

Readings for the Week

Monday	Eph 2:1-10/Lk 12:13-21
Tuesday	Eph 2:12-22/Lk 12:35-38
Wednesday	Eph 3:2-12/Lk 12:39-48
Thursday	Eph 3:14-21/Lk 12:49-53
Friday	Eph 4:1-6/Lk 12:54-59
Saturday	Eph 4:7-16/Lk 13:1-9
Sunday	Jer 31:7-9/Heb 5:1-6/Mk 10:46-52

Join us next week as our readings' focus is: "Just as Jesus restored sight to the blind man, our faith in him opens our eyes to truth and eternal life in Christ." The story of Jesus healing the blind man speaks powerfully to us. Your faith has saved you, Jesus tells him. The man, with his sight restored, follows Jesus. May our own faith and determination give us sight as well, that we may also know and follow God in our daily lives.

Anointing of the Sick

Our next Anointing of the Sick will take place following the 4:00 Mass at SS. Peter & Paul on Saturday, October 20. This sacrament is for those who struggle with serious illness in their life or for those who are feeling the effects of age. Those who wish to participate in this sacrament will be instructed to stay in the worship space toward the front of church following Mass.

Keep in Prayer

Please keep all those students preparing for Confirmation in prayer as they approach the sacrament this coming Saturday, October 27 at Holy Rosary. May the Spirit descend upon them and instill within them the fire of God's love!

World Mission Sunday

Today is World Mission Sunday, a special moment of encounter with the Pope's missions throughout the world. I invite all of us to raise our voices this World Mission Sunday by supporting the Priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. Your prayers and generous gifts to the Society for the Propagations of the Faith, Latin America and Eastern Europe will help missionaries share the joy of the Gospel and help the poor by our fervent prayer and generous hearts.

Feast of All Saints

On Thursday, November 1, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. This is a Holy Day of Obligation within our Catholic faith. We will celebrate the feast with Masses as follows:

Dr. Boos has been a college professor since 1986 and has taught Philosophy, Ethics, Theology, and Law courses at a number of universities in the US and in Tanzania. He helped start a Catholic College in Tanzania in the 1990's and taught over 300 seminarians, many of whom became priests. Dr. Boos has published scholarly articles on Catholic Education, Sustainability, and Ethics and Social Justice. The presentation on November 12th from 6—7:30 pm will cover the Church's theoretical position of these concepts based on scripture; but will also include recommendations on simple methods for Catholics to practice social justice in their daily lives. Why Volunteer?

We live in a busy society in which schools, churches and organizations ask you to help out from time to time. Convinced between your work, family, and social life there isn't possibly enough time to volunteer? New to the community? Recently retired? Looking to branch out socially? Simply looking for something to do with new people? Volunteering can be a fun way to make new friends. Volunteer and get to know others who share common interests.

Here at SS. Peter & Paul we have many, many opportunities to volunteer. Become an usher, catechist, proclaimer of the word, greeter, or Eucharistic Minister. Help at the pie stand, country breakfast or perch dinner. Join the choir or help serve a meal for funerals. The list goes on and on. The right match can help you find friends, reach out to the community and get to know the person sitting next to you in the pew.

And as many studies have shown, possibly the greatest benefit to volunteering is happiness.
