 - Developing four long range goals: 1. Reviewing salaries and benefits to remain competitive; 2. Keep mission evident to parish; 3. Staff work on developing professional development plans; 4. Provide resources and activities for parents to develop catholic faith life
 - Voucher school program – 6 students, 10 for next year, looking into special needs voucher program for 2018/19 school year.
 - Daycare staffing has stabilized; Fromm accounting has taken over payroll, still in need of a 3 day/wk cook, please spread the word.
 - 2018/2019 school year – 80 students registered, 90 (2017/2018), anticipate staying flat YOY (3k/4k registration coming up in spring)
- III. Lenten Project Update & Questions – hosted Capuchin at masses this weekend to speak to need
 - Receiving gifts and anticipate meeting target of 300 gifts
 - Reverse collection was effective
- IV. FORMED – Feedback is that the resources are professional, complete, conclusive, good resource for faith formation, parish staff, movies looked great, viewed “Forgiven” clip, tool for evangelization, baptismal prep, faith formation, administrators can measure usage by clicks, etc; overlapping resource with Relevant Radio? $1750 annual subscription, shared across 3 parishes, would need to promote; formed.org; trial@formed.org; password: Annunciation#18, recommendation to move forward to finance council.
- V. Syncing parish websites – websites are currently linked, joint pastoral council support to link bulletins, Joe and Jami Ehlenbeck to explore some options to link bulletins and explore site mergers.
- VI. Church security (brief from Joe) – In response to active shooter news, diocese offered 2 day seminar that Sue Philippi recently attended, Hartford police department offered 1 day seminar that Joe attended, Kiel Police Chief offered training for joint parish staff to address active shooter, theft, etc. Future update in May – Joe to compile notes from trainings and Kiel Police Chief meeting and will share out with councils

- VII. Other: Joint session meeting minutes will be completed by whomever hosts the meeting. Minutes will be sent to Joe to be shared with the councils and approved in the following meeting.

Holy Rosary Pastoral Council

February meeting minutes: Rich Greuel made a motion to approved the minutes, Bill Atkinson seconded. Motion carried.

Old Business:
